License Plate

Renewals In Mail

AUSTIN

The first of 7.5 million renewal applications from the Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department were dispatched from the Post Office's facilities in Dallas on Friday, December 31.

Owners of motor vehicles should be receiving the renewal applications -- for obtaining 1972 Texas license plates -- early in January.

The actual motor vehicle registration "season" at county tax offices does not begin until February 1.

However, vehicle owners may go ahead and order their license plates by mail immediately.

All that is required is to send the entire renewal application, the registration fee and $1 for each vehicle to be registered to the local county tax office. License plates will be returned by mail after registration begins formally on February 1.

Vehicle owners should allow at least 30 days for processing and delivery. The application should be sent to the local county tax office -- not to the Texas Highway Department.

License plates can be obtained in person at county tax offices and designated sub-stations beginning on February 1.

In any case, registration will go faster if the owner leaves the three-part form intact and does not separate any of the three parts.

Complete, easy - to - follow instructions are contained on the form and on the envelope.

Deadline for displaying 1972 license plates is midnight, April 1.

Merges Routes

The Cameron Post Office has announced the elimination of Rural Route 4 as a mailing address effective January 8. The mail route has been merged with the remaining three rural routes out of the Cameron office.

Henry Litzman, assistant postmaster, said elimination of Route 4 was due to declining rural population. Erle Burke, Route 4 carrier, retired last year and the route had been handled by substitute carrier Kenneth Thweatt until this week Litzman said.

Ruling To Affect School Plans

HEARNE

The federal court ruling on Texas school financing will affect Hearne School plans, trustees said. The board has been studying for several months the amount of a school bond which would be necessary to further school improvements and it is thought that between $500,000 and $600,000 would be needed. The new ruling came just two weeks after the schools were served notice by a state agency that unless they made large improvements to the vocational agriculture department that the state aid for this phase of school would be withdrawn after this year.

'Symphony Day'...

Mayor E. A. Perrin has declared Tuesday, January 11 "Symphony Day" in Cameron.

The proclamation is justified. Hundreds of people and numbers approaching 3,000 will hear the Dallas Symphony at work at National Guard Armory in two youth concerts and full concert Tuesday night.

This has become a community project. Participation begins with the Cameron schools, neighboring districts, the Cameron Chamber, Friends of Cameron Library, YHS band, YHS honor society, First United Methodist Church, dozens of individuals, the news media, Texas National Guard, Arts and Service League.

Sponsorship is through the National Endowment of the Arts, Washington, D. C., Alcoa Foundation, Pittsburgh, Pa., CISD, school districts through the Milam County Superintendent's office and many others who are sponsoring spots on a souvenir program for the evening performance.

If anyone is overlooked, it is because volunteer interest in "Symphony Day" has already exceeded recall on any two-day undertaking in the town's cultural history.

This is a fine thing. And the calibre of music and artist, like the talented, young Ralph Kirshbaum, will justify the enthusiasm and commitment that Cameron and Milam County are giving the program.

You will surely want to hear this performance the evening of "Symphony Day."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Luecke:

I noticed in a recent issue of the Cameron Herald a news item about the Cameron School Board appointing a committee to look for a new head coach.

Now I don't get around too much to where the "gossip" is with winter here and haying cattle, but this news item surely surprised me. For one thing it meant that perhaps the present head coach and some of his fine assistants would have to look for new jobs. Now looking for a new job would not be too bad if you knew you had been a failure at your old job or if it were an advancement, but if you felt you had done the best out of the coaching material available and still were faced to leave a town you had loved, then that would be another story.

Now I just don't take everything for granted and believe all I hear or read, so I started getting information both locally and out of town. For the plus side of the present coaching staff, I found out that surrounding area coaches have lots of respect for the coaches at Cameron. One remarked that Cameron had played some boys regularly that would not have had the speed or size to suit out at this school. He further stated that the Cameron team made up for the lack of team speed and size with boys that had courage, desire and the excellent coaching.

Locally there is some talk that some of the boys did not "like the coach." There also seems to be a few parents that have been disgruntled. Considering how some parents are pushing their sons in athletics, that was not too surprising to me. Maybe their son just did not make the team or be the star like a neighbor's son or the one one the farm or the one who lived on the wrong side of town.

Having a few boys not liking a coach isn't abnormal in a town like Cameron, that has so many fans that want a winning team and stardom for their sons. But to have a winning football team, every coach knows it takes hard work, good discipline, and the support of the school administration, students, and fans. Let's face it, the parents who are pushing a son so in athletics must surely know that to be a hero you have to pay the price, it doesn't come any other way.

Mr. Luecke, I have a solution that would keep lots of coaches and their families from moving in and out of our "friendly city." My idea would even help the school administrators by them not having to make the decision of not supporting the coaching staff when petty local grievances come up. (The decision is always easier when it comes to a showdown of whether to jeopardize your own job or to back the coaching and teaching staff). Since Cameron has more than a normal supply of non-degree coaches, why not use this talent to coach our teams! Our non-degree coaches could take turns coaching and each could have his own set of discipline rules. Then we could have the wishbone, the spread, the Houston veer, the "T" formation, the pro set, or what have you. Passing or running could be just as varied depending on the coach of the week.

Just think how difficult it would be for Cameron opponents to scout Cameron! They would never know what would be up next. "All" the parents would be pleased, too, since their sons could miss or make practices, grow beards, long hair, mustaches, goaties or what have you. Our opponents might even be penalized for hair tackling instead of face mask grabbing. Maybe some of our coaches of the week could even play a son as quarterback. Just imagine having the ball on the one yard line and letting your own son carry the ball over the line!

Mr. Luecke, maybe this solution seems "corney" to you, but if it gets a few people to thinking and wondering what's going on in our community, perhaps it was worth the time it took to write this letter.

Gov. Says State Will Accelerate Safety Efforts

AUSTIN
Eying lower-than-expected holiday traffic death tolls, Gov. Preston Smith last week promised accelerated traffic safety efforts during 1972 by the state.

"While the death toll during the holidays was significantly lower than expected," Gov. Smith said, "it still appears that the number killed in traffic during 1971 will be slightly higher than the toll for 1970."

"Accordingly, Texas drivers can be assured that the state's traffic safety effort will not diminish during 1972. Rather, our overall efforts will be significantly accelerated," the Governor said.

Gov. Smith and Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir issued statements after the first of the year paying tribute to the driving public which made the Christmas and New Year's holidays significantly safer than had been predicted.

"Based on past experience, the DPS had estimated that 98 persons would be killed on Texas streets and highways during the two holiday weekends," the Governor said. "Early reports indicated the actual toll to be about 78."

"Of course, it is regrettable that even one person should be killed in traffic," Gov. Smith went on. "But we can express our thanks that there are many Texas alive today who otherwise would not be."

Col. Speir singled out "increased public awareness and massive law enforcement efforts as important factors in the lower tolls during the holidays."

"Based on reports from the field, the lower tolls were realized despite inclement weather conditions and heavier than usual traffic in most parts of the state," Col. Speir said.

"The 'drive friendly' public awareness campaign and other safety appeals appeared to impress the driving public and resulted in more careful driving," Col. Speir said. "The inclement weather conditions seemed to encourage drivers to reduce speeds and be more cautious."

"And the efforts of city police and sheriff department officers and our own DPS personnel were equally important factors," Dol. Speir said.

Governor Smith singled out the news media for praise. "Special tribute should be paid to the news media of Texas which created a remarkable awareness among drivers of the dangers of holiday driving and the importance of 'driving friendly,'" the Governor said.

"Newspapers and radio and television stations made unparalleled use of public service ads and announcements and news releases prior to and all during both holiday periods," Gov. Smith said. "These reminders were a vital factor in the determination of Texas drivers to be more careful during these periods of heavy traffic."

State, County Political Organizations To Report

Secretary of State Bob Bullock today asked that the state and county political organizations report their contributions and expenditures in the same manner as is required of candidates for public office.

"The people of this state who care enough to give their money to political parties deserve to know how their money is being spent. Likewise, they are entitled to know how much money is received by their party and the sources of the contributions," he said.

"I do not contend that the law requires these reports. It does not. However, thirty-one states now require that political organizations at all levels report their contributions and expenditures. I believe that Texas parties should be no less diligent in keeping the public informed."

"I know of no better way to accomplish this than by assuring the people of this state that they will be accurately informed of the financial transactions of the candidates and the political organizations."

"In my directive of December 3, 1971, the statutes governing the reporting requirements of candidates for public office were clarified. I now believe the candidates are aware of what is required of them and I am sure that they will comply."

"If the political parties will take this same step toward public disclosure of their finances, the people of this state can make a more accurate judgement of the performance of their party."

"I believe that this type of open disclosure should be required of the parties and my staff is presently preparing draft legislation to be submitted to the next session of the Legislature. Until such legislation is enacted, I call on the state and county political organizations to voluntarily make this report in the interest of the people."

"In order to allow the parties to comply with my request in an orderly fashion, I ask that all contributions and expenditures to the parties made after January 1, 1972, be reported at the same time and in the same manner as is required of candidates for public office."

Bell Starts New Rates

An adjustment of long distance telephone rates within Texas, announced on July 31 but deferred because of the wage-price freeze, has been authorized by the Price Commission in Washington and went into effect at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday, December 29.

The new telephone rates feature reduced charges for most One-Plus Dialing and increased rates for operator-assisted calls within Texas.

Dennis Richter, manager for Southwestern Bell here, said the adjustment should increase the company's intrastate revenue by about 2 per cent.

Also being introduced along with the new rate for One-Plus Dialing are:

- A new one-minute initial period of "night" (11 p.m. to 8 a.m.)

One-Plus calls which do not require the services of an operator;

- New rates for all operator-assisted calls (station-to-station, person-to-person, credit card, coin, third number and "collect") during all calling periods;

- New rate periods (day, evening, night and weekend) on One-Plus calls. These time periods are the same as now in effect for calls going outside Texas.

Richter also pointed out that two holidays -- Labor Day and July 4 -- are being added to the list of days on which reduced rates apply for One-Plus calls within Texas.

Price Commission Clarifies Base Price Information

With the beginning of the new business year, the Price Commission has further clarified its requirement for posting prices by retail organizations, according to R. L. Phinney, District Director of Internal Revenue for southern Texas.

1. Retailers with sales of less than $100,000 per year are required to display prominently the base prices for those 40 products which had the highest dollar sales volume during the last fiscal year, or those products which accounted for 50% of the total dollar sales volume during that year, whichever is less.

2. Retailers with sales of $100,000 or more per year are required to display prominently the base price for:

a. All food and food-related products. Base prices for food and food-related (grocery store) products may be posted at a central location provided that signs are available in each department indicating the location of the base price list. A department is the organizational unit customarily treated by the seller as a department; and

b. Non-food products. Those 40 non-food products which had the highest dollar sales volume in each department during the last fiscal year; or Those non-food products which accounted for at least 50 percent of total dollar sales in that department during the last fiscal year, whichever is less. Base price lists for non-food items must be prominently posted in each department containing items.

The location of base price lists must be easily accessible to the customer and must not require him to ask a store employee for access to the information.

In addition to the above, all retailers must prominently display, on each floor of their establishments, at least one sign (minimum size 22" x 28") announcing the availability of base price information for all items that are not posted or required to be posted. Base Price Information Request Forms must be available in at least one location on each selling floor of the establishment and the retailer must respond in writing to such written requests within 48 hours after the request is received.

Requirements for posting and availability of base price information do not apply to exempt products such as raw agricultural products (lettuce, fresh fruit, etc.).

The Price Commission has asked the Internal Revenue Service to begin checking retailer compliance on January 3, 1972. In cases where the IRS determines that a retailer has attempted to comply with the spirit of the program but has misinterpreted the posting requirements, that retailer may be given until January 17 to adjust his posting procedures to conform with the regulations.

Price Freeze 'Working'

WASHINGTON

Secretary of Labor J. D. Hodgson issued the following statement on December 22:

Evidence that President Nixon's wage and price program is working emerged clearly today.

The index for the August-November period increased at an average annual rate of a mere 1.7 per cent.

This 1.7 per cent contrasts with a 4.1 per cent increase rate for the six months prior to August.

President Nixon told the Nation on August 15 he wanted inflation brought under control. The Nation's producers, sellers, and consumers have shown conclusively by their actions that they support his program for achieving that goal.

The program has been a success. The outlook is a better year for the average consumer.

Economic Stabilization Questions and Answers

This column of questions and answers on the President's Economic Stabilization Program is provided by the Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service. The column answers questions most frequently asked about wages and prices.

Q - My landlord has just raised by rent, but won't show me any records justifying the increase. Can I refuse to pay?

A - Tenants may refuse to pay added rental charges unless the landlord makes available records showing the base price for the units, and the reason for any increase between the base price and the maximum price he was allowed to charge during the freeze. The IRS has cautioned landlords against raising rents -- even within Price Commission guidelines -- unless they keep complete records on rental practices and make the records available to tenants whose rents are to be increased.

Q - Do wholesalers have to comply with the base price posting requirements applicable to retailers?

A - No.

Q - Does an employer have to apply to the Internal Revenue Service for permission to make retroactive payments for services performed during the freeze by employees receiving less than $2 per hour straight time or for one-time fringe benefit increases which came due for employees during the freeze?

A - No. In these cases, employers may make retroactive payments on their own determination, subject only to compliance checking by the Internal Revenue Service.

Q - Are state unemployment compensation payments subject to controls in Phase II?

A - State unemployment compensation payments are not wages or prices within the meaning of the governing statute and are not controlled. This is true whether or not a particular state's program is funded in whole or in part by employer contributions.

Q - Do the economic controls apply to college tuition charges?

A - Yes, tuition, as well as room and board are covered.

Q - Do prenotifiers and reporting firms use the same form to notify the Price Commission of price increases?

A - Yes. Form PC-1 (PC-1R for retailers and wholesalers) should be used by both firms with annual sales of $100 million or more to notify the Price Commission in advance of price increases and file quarterly reports and those firms with annual sales between $50-100 million that are merely required to report quarterly. The Price Commission will process requests for price increases only if submitted on those forms or facsimile copies. These forms are available at Internal Revenue Service offices.

All other manufacturing, service and professional firms who do not have to file Form PC-1 to validate their price increases, but must maintain records of such increases in their files, may find the form useful for computing and recording in the files any price increases put into effect.

Q - Service charges such as utility, parking meter and bridge tolls were subject to Phase I while licenses and fines such as vehicle licenses and parking tickets were exempt. Does the same situation apply to Phase II?

A - Yes. Unless specifically altered by regulation or published rulings, policy rulings issued by the Cost of Living Council and interpretations issued by the Office of Emergency Preparedness continue to be applicable after November 13, 1971.

ally altered by regulation or published rulings, policy rulings issued by the Cost of Living Council and interpretations issued by the Office of Emergency Preparedness continue to be applicable after November 13, 1971.

BUSINESS REVIEW

I.T. Gilbert Is A Top Salesman For Mutual Of Omaha

You win the Master Builders Club award by top salesmanship and service with Mutual of Omaha.

That is just what Ivey T. Gilbert, Milam County representative of the famous insurance company, delivers.

He is one of Mutual of Omaha's top 12 salesmen, in the country, cited January, 1970, as a member of the Master Builders Club of Mutual of Omaha Insurance and its affiliate, United Benefit Life Insurance Company.

He won similar recognition in a plaque presented in January, 1968.

Gilbert is a sales and service representative for Milam County, a responsibility he has held for five years. He has a total of 13 years experience in the insurance sales field.

Four times a year he joins with other representatives of Mutual of Omaha in study course and seminars to update information on today's service needs for both companies and what other companies are offering.

So Gilbert's presentation is timely. And a Mutual of Omaha policy pays and pays, because, he points out of one clause.

It is a recurrence clause very few health and accident companies provide which can be used over and over and over for the same disability.

Gilbert cites on policyholder's experience in which the man received $15,000 for one disability for recurring health problems due to the one deficiency.

Born in Buckholts, Gilbert graduated from Sharp High School before it was consolidated about 15 years ago. He is married, and he and his wife Pat have three children: Ronald, 16; Brenda, 13; and Donna, 10. The Gilberts live on West 22nd Street

Cameron Lumber Co. Boasts Amazing Variety

Cameron Lumber Co. sells standard lumber and roofing materials. That's expected.

What is unexpected is the amazing variety of 1,000 paint colors available at Cameron Lumber, operated by Charles Chandler, 12 years an experienced decorator, builder and remodeler.

How does Cameron Lumber assure 1,000 colors? It's with Colony paints' instant color, liquid powder paint system, guaranteed for color accuracy.

Decorating a room, a house exterior, the whole house is easy with Cameron Lumber's Colony paint system.

If 1,000 paints aren't enough, how about pre-finished paneling and moldings in a variety of finishes and tones in a variety of prices?

Assisting Chandler is Gene Marak, himself a veteran of eight years with the firm.

Cameron Lumber Co. traces its beginnings to Jeter Lumber Co. in 1890, which successively became Woodson Lumber, Wiese Lumber and now Cameron Lumber Co., all in the same location.

Its location across from City Hall is an advantage that Chandler enjoys. He manages a business that is part of a career in paint and decorating sales, wholesale and retail, in Austin and Cameron.

Other building and decorating materials are part of the Cameron Lumber service. Ceiling tile, hardware and bulkier supplies, a complete line of plumbing equipment, carpenter tools, yard equipment, picture framing service, aluminum window screen service are a part of Cameron Lumber's merchandising.

Skin Cancer Study Funded

A gift of $10,000 to further research in malignant melanoma has been awarded by the Department of Texas American Legion Auxiliary to the surgical research laboratory of The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston.

The funds will enable Dr. Marvin Romsdahl, head of Anderson's surgical research laboratory, to continue studies into the diagnosis, prevention and treatment of the disease.

Melanoma, a form of skin cancer that generally originates in a pigmented mole, is particularly vicious because of the rapidity with which it spreads. At present, techniques for early diagnosis and treatment are poor.

Sharp -Tracy- Friendship

By Mrs. Leroy Guillote

It seems the weather was being extra nice, letting all the visiting folks have time to return home from the holidays, before lowering the boom. Pipes froze, one friends home was without gas until close to noon when it began to thaw out. A new calf arrived in the middle of the sleet storm and didn't like this world at all. Several of my parakeets froze solid.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Brockebush and Peggy visited in Austin with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Green and Mrs. Albert Rinn.

Mrs. Edna Rinn was a guest in her sons home in Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rinn. Mrs. Rinn also visited the Ernest Browns in Rockdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sterling and Mrs. Mayfield of Ft. Worth were guests of Mrs. Blanche Mitchum.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pope spent the week-end in Austin with John Dewey, Betty and Melissa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thiele of Taylor spent a while Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coffman.

Dan Davis is home for a while with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Davis.

Charles Schwartz and family of Amarillo visited with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schwartz. They all went to Waco, and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. James Schwartz and family. From there, the Charles Schwartz family drove back to Amarillo.
